THE I.O.O.F./U.B. BUILDINGS -- These two buildings demonstrate the vitality of Huntington's ongoing service and social organizations. The 20th Century Commercial style I.O.O.F. building (1910) features three ranks of Chicago style windows and a nicely shaped parapet with a central name medallion. The adjacent four-story Neo-Classical style building (1915), which its raised basement, uses masonry arches and mock keystones, along with soldier-course ornamental brick work to highlight the upper row of windows.
